

Abstract Submission No. : 9170

National Policy for CKD:USA

Scott Bieber

Kootenai Health, United States

This lecture will cover the background of the current state of kidney care in the USA, a brief summary of the history of CKD policy in the US, new and exciting initiatives for kidney care policy from the central government (AAKH). The role of the ASN in the kidney care community will also be reviewed along with a review of the potential future of kidney care in the USA.