

Abstract Submission No. : 9135

Geriatric assessment in advanced kidney disease

Edwina Brown

Hammersmith Hospital, United Kingdom

Frailty and multimorbidity are more common in people with advanced kidney disease than in the general population. The topics to be included in this lecture are:

What is frailty and its impact on patient outcomes

Assessing frailty

Comprehensive geriatric assessment

Impact of geriatric assessment on patient outcomes

Understanding patient's expectations and need to discuss these so appropriate for level of frailty and prognosis